A credit or debit card MUST be kept on file for automatic, recurring payments. We DO NOT accept checking accounts or American Express. There are no late fees if the payment is not received on the due date. HOWEVER, the student must meet with the TBC Office Manager before 5:00 pm on the next business day. If payment is not made by 5:00 pm on the following business day after the payment due date, the student will receive a mark on their account. If a student receives more than one mark during a semester, they will either be dismissed from TBC or denied the ability to utilize a payment plan next following semester they attend. The current semester balance must be paid in full before the beginning of the next new semester.

All charges and fees MUST be paid in full by the end of the current semester, or the student will be denied access to their final exams, grades, transcripts, and degrees.

Dorm Deposit and Facility Damages Policy

Half of room deposits will be refunded upon completion of the student's final semester, provided their room is left clean and undamaged at the time of leaving. Students will be financially responsible for any room damage costs exceeding the amount of their Room Deposit Fee. Any damage caused by a student to TBC property (i.e. student center, dormitories, classrooms) will incur additional charges in the amount of the damages.
